NOUARI OUALID

Summary

As a Technology High School student with a passion for IT and business management, I have recently embarked on a journey to become a front-end developer. Since January 2022, I have been actively learning and honing my skills in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript through online courses, personal projects, and participation in coding communities. With a keen eye for detail and a creative flair, I strive to create engaging, user-friendly web experiences that meet clients' needs and exceed their expectations. I am highly motivated, a quick learner, and eager to take on new challenges in the field of front-end development.
